PROJECT LAPSON

Defined as a "Style Guru," Charlie Lapson has created his own label. His signature jewelry, handbags, and watches can be found in stores across the country and on international airwaves, and are admired and worn by some of the most recognizable personalities including Jennifer Aniston, Eva Longoria, Cameron Diaz, Brad Pitt, Kirsten Dunst, Will Smith, Felicity Huffman, Halle Berry, and Nicollette Sheridan. Through his involvement with such high-profile events as the Academy Awards, Emmys, Grammys, and the American Idol series, Lapson has perfected the art of merging masterful design with individual personality to become one of the most-sought-after consultants in the entertainment and fashion industries. Each creation starts as a blank canvas and turns into a personalized work of art. Color, texture, and shape are the hallmarks of his collection.
